Reviewed by authorized church administrators. Applying does not confirm a class place.

Before you apply Class schedules, location, fees, enrollment dates, and participation requirements are to be confirmed.

LEARNING WITH PURPOSE

A starting point that feels right for you

Learning begins with your current level and everyday goals. Use these level options to describe where you are today; available classes and placement will be confirmed after review.

BEGINNER

New to Korean

Begin with Hangul and useful first expressions for everyday life in Korea.

Hangul · Greetings · Simple phrases

ELEMENTARY

Build your foundations

Connect familiar words and phrases, and practise everyday conversations.

Daily conversation · Essential vocabulary

INTERMEDIATE

Grow your confidence

Develop your expression and share your ideas on familiar topics.

Expressing ideas · Understanding context

Not sure of your level? That's okay. Describe what you can do and what you would like to learn in your application.

A CLEAR PATH FORWARD

From application to the right connection

Start by telling us about yourself. Review and suitable instructor matching come next.

01 Apply online

Tell us how to reach you, your current Korean level, and what you hope to learn.

02 Application review

Authorized church administrators review your application and learning needs.

03 Instructor matching

Your needs and instructor availability guide a suitable match. Class arrangements are confirmed afterward.

A little preparation helps

Use this as a preparation guide. Final required fields and review timelines are to be confirmed.

- Contact information
  Have a reliable way for the team to reach you.
- Your level and goals
  Think about your experience and what you want to practise.
- Your availability
  Consider times that could work. Class schedules are not yet set.

HERE TO HELP

Support for your next step

For questions about applying, choosing a level, or accessibility needs, learner support arrangements and contact options will be published once confirmed.

Contact details & support hours: to be confirmed

A few things you may be wondering

Can I apply if I am completely new to Korean?

You can describe yourself as a first-time learner. Final participation requirements and beginner class availability are to be confirmed.

When and where are classes, and what do they cost?

Schedules, location, fees, and enrollment dates are not yet confirmed. This concept does not announce a specific class or enrollment period.

Will I be matched with an instructor right away?

No. Administrators first review your application, then consider your needs and instructor availability. Placement and timing are not yet confirmed.

Who will review my information?

Applications are intended for review by authorized church administrators. Privacy and data retention information must be finalized before launch.

What would happen next?

These are prospective next steps. Review procedures, timing, and contact channels need church confirmation.

01 Application review
Authorized administrators would review your learning needs and contact details. They may ask for clarification through an approved contact channel.

02 Possible instructor matching
The team may consider a suitable instructor based on your goals, Korean level, availability, and instructor capacity.

03 Class arrangements, if a match is possible
Any proposed schedule, location, fees, and participation conditions would need to be confirmed before a class begins.

Application is not placement
Submission does not confirm eligibility, a class place, or an instructor. No review or matching deadline is promised.

Need to update something?

The process for post-submission changes and learner support contact channels will be confirmed before launch.
